Old Business

Nominating Committee needed at next meeting. Ideas of when there are events coming up to sell tickets for our raffle quilt are still needed. Our raffle quilt ticket sales is our largest money maker. Larissa Barnhart has packets of tickets for each member to purchase. There are 24 tickets for $20. Open Sew cancelled for March 19th as there has been no sign-ups. Connie will let Toma's know. Quilt Show Shuttle was discussed.

Jeannie will check into availability of school bus on Saturday. Entry forms were passed around for quilt show. Janet Terrill reminded us it is also on our web site.

Lailani gave out the last step to the mystery quilt. Reminder, mystery quilt entry will be due at the May meeting so members can vote on the winner. Then the quilts will be displayed at the show. Cheryl Jenkins reported she has delivered 64 baby quilts to the hospital so far. She received several more at this meeting. Thank you to every one.

New Business: Bobbi Thomson has been given a Oregon Trails. She suggested we could use it for our next raffle quilt. Marietta passed around a fabric swatch she had found in some of her mom's stash from 1962 with the price tag still attached at 37 cents per yard !

Raffle Basket Winner Marietta Herinckx. Linda Koloski motioned and Jeannie seconded that we add $21 to ticket sales take to make a total of $50 for next basket. Motion carried.

Gift Certificate Winner None drawn this meeting.

Announcement Joann Pollock shared information about the accident that happen last week on Hurricane Creek Road. Her neighbor was driving his 1934 classic pick-up when he was hit by a car coming from the side road. He is in the hospital in Boise with left side paralysis and will be in a wheel chair for some time. She wondered if we could donate him a quilt. Connie Jenkins has a full to queen size quilt she would like to give. Joann and her husband are going to Boise this week-end and will take it to him then.
