

Wallowa Mountain Quilters' Guild

Meeting Minutes February 2018

February's meeting included our annual Quilto night with a short meeting before we started to play. President Barbara McCormack opened with 20 members present. No minute corrections from January.

Cheryl shared that we received the grant money from the Oregon Cultural Trust to go towards our honor quilt program.

Welcome to our 2 new members! We look forward to getting to know Karla Holme of Imnaha and Jean Schulz of Lostine.

Pomeroy Quilt Retreat April 5th-8th update by Karolyne. She asked for $100.00 down payment and please make the check out to Rather B's. If paying the total it would be $135.00.

It was brought up to discuss whether or not we would like to take baby quilts to Hope along with our fire and honor quilts. Barb made a motion that anyone who wants to take a baby quilt to Hope would be paid for by the guild. Cheryl seconded it. All in favor, passed unanimously.

Cheryl continues to sell raffle tickets to this year's raffle quilt to all members. Just a reminder to buy your $10.00 worth of raffle tickets.

Gail Hillock read and passed around 2 more thank you cards from veterans Jim Kilgore and John Nesbitt.

Reminder to those who are signed up to work our booth at the Sweetheart Bazaar being held at the Hurricane Creek Grange Feb 9th and 10th.

The Joseph Charter school sewing class of Marla Dotson were not ready for us to help them yet as of this meeting. Yun is the contact person for that project.

The Row by Row Challenge was shared by those who brought their row. Betty, Linda K-E, Joyce, and Janis showed theirs this month. Show n Tell was also shown by Gail, Cheryl, Sue, Betty, Linda K-E, Joyce and Bobbi.

Meeting adjourned by 6:30. Onto Quilto!! Everyone brought fat quarters in trade for quilto cards. The winner of the evening was Joyce! Fun was had by all and yummy valentine treats were provided by everyone. Thank you to Sue and Nancy for hostessing. March hostesses are Jeannie and Connie. See you all next month at our March 8th meeting.

Respectfully submitted,
Gail Hillock
WMQG Secretary
