

Wallowa Mountain Quilters Guild

May 2018 Minutes

The meeting came to order by President Barbara McCormack at 6:05 pm.

19 members were present.

April minutes stand approved. Passed unanimously.

Treasurer Cheryl Jenkins gave the treasurer's report. Available checking account funds on May 10, 2018 was $3,838.75 and savings account is at $2,002.41.

Hurricane Crk Grange set up Linda Knifong's fabric and notions for all to come and take home a box full of treasures. Along that line it was decided that next year's challenge quilt will begin with a piece of Linda Knifong's fabrics for a baby quilt. We have Linda Knifong 'specially made by' labels if you want a label.

Our upcoming quilt show was discussed. There will be demo corners in the gym showing different things we do. Quilt show sign-ups were passed around. We hired David & Tina Hite with Rooted Ministry Youth Group high schoolers for our set-up and take down.

Quilt Show prizes will be Best of Show called People's Choice Award. Motion was made by Marietta Herinckx that we give a $50.00 gift certificate to LaGrande Quilt Shop, potted flowers and a basket. Cheryl Jenkins gave the 2nd and all agreed.

There will be 3 vendors – Material Girls, Pendleton shop (sorry can't remember their name), and Cattle Country.

Robyn McAlister will be making signs for the show.

Don't forget to be getting things made for our bazaar sale table at the show.

Quilts are nice to have for sale on table too.

Marietta shared that next year's Pendleton quilt show's theme will be Kaleidoscope. Not bigger than 72" on anyone side. $10.00 entry fee due in January and the show is in May. Marietta also shared about a show in Utah. She passed on that the friction pens are not safe for quilts. The ink comes back after it gets cold.

Celeste Bauck shared about Elgin's quilt show. It is the weekend after ours. She has a form if anyone wants a copy. She also let everyone know that Prairie Creek Quilts is willing to stock some supplies and notions for local gals if there is any interest. Prairie Creek Quilts also offered to help Hope McLaughlin with the baby, fire, and honor quilts until she gets back on her feet after her surgeries.

Our last mtg will be the Thursday after the show, June 14th. The guild will furnish pizza for dinner.

The May 12th sew day for making baby quilts and fire quilts has been cancelled.

The May 19th house/sewing room tour has been cancelled.

The raffle basket winner tonight was Cheryl Jenkins!

7 Row by Row quilts were turned in tonight for the 2018 challenge quilt voting. Gail Hillock won this year's challenge.

Nominations were brought to the table for next year's officers:

President – Marietta Herinckx,

Co-Vice President – Sandy Beaudoin and Barbara McCormack,
