

Wallowa Mountain Quilters' Guild February 2019 Minutes

Meeting was called to order at 6:00pm by president Marietta Herinckx. 24 members were present. Marietta reported that the Citizen's Award banquet and Hope McLaughlin getting the Unsung Hero award was a complete success! She read a portion of the letter that Hope wrote to the Chieftain. Hope was totally surprised, and those members that attended the dinner said she was very happy to be presented with her quilt. Thank you to everyone who contributed.

Treasurer's Report: No Treasurer's report as Jeannie Alford was unable to make the meeting.

Old Business: Reports from Committee Chairpersons

1. Bev Hayward mentioned there is a sew day on Feb. 16th at the VFW for Honor Quilts. She also mentioned there is still room in the Eddie Walker class (this class was subsequently cancelled due to road conditions and will be rescheduled at a later date).
2. Cheryl Jenkins reported that Gail and Celeste are both sick, but Celeste will send out the next Medallion steps via email.
3. Spring Quilt Retreat: Cheryl also stated that Gail will send out an email to those attending the retreat at the Red Lion in Lewiston March 21-24. She will be in touch with the hotel. She stated that it will be up to individuals to call and make reservations. The cost is $102.60/night for two queen beds. You can have up to four people in the room and divide the cost accordingly. The rooms include a free continental breakfast, but all other meals will be on your own.

New Business

1. Anne Melville presented the February block of the month. Instructions were distributed for that block which should be done with the fabric provided (red and white). Remember to also complete another block in red and white. Blue can be added as sashing for honor quilts
2. Bobbi Thomson distributed honor quilt blocks. Be sure to complete the block if you take a packet.

Other Discussion

Show and tell and door prize drawing completed the business portion of the meeting. Kathleen Weeks mentioned that she and Ken Terrill have been working on updating the website. Check it out at wallowamountainquilters.com. It will now include information on retreats, work days, other events and block of the month patterns, etc. Thanks to both of them for all the hard work.

This was the annual Quilto meeting. Kirsten Rohla was the lucky blackout winner, so she took home a bunch of fat Quarters.
