

Wallowa Mountain Quilters Guild - Meeting March 13, 2020 – Grangeville, ID

Members present were: Gail, Cheryl, BJ, Jeanie, Beverly, Kathleen, Karolyne, Barbara, Joanne and Marietta.

Minutes of last meeting were accepted as posted. Thank you Sue for the work you do.

Treasures Report. We voted to give the Community Meal Site $200.00 and to continue to support the county fair with $50.00 Best of Show Award ($25 for youth and $25 for Adult) in the quilting division.

Old Business

It was announced that the Elks Crab Feed, March 14 at the Elks Lodge was cancelled. Will wait for a future date to be announced. Thank you to volunteers Shirley & Bob C. and Ellen Nesbitt and Linda K.

Sew days will now be at home. We will still work Saturday March 21 on Honor Quilts. The rest of the year Sew Days were open sew.

BJ will cancel/postpone the April 4 Kapow class – 5 are signed up. We could keep this in mind for next years classes.

Members were in favor of having a 20/20 show at the Josephy Center in September – BJ & Linda Koloski. Set up would be Thurs and show would run Fri, Sat and Sunday. Will use web site and Facebook to get the word out. We could possibly draw for this year's raffle quilt during this show. To be decided at a later date.

Honor Quilt presentation on Vietnam Vet Day – March 29 at the Grange – Linda K & Barbara Mc
This event was canceled and postcards were sent out. Thank you Linda K.

BOM - March - Sue W. provided the packets of fabric. Several members worked on their BOM and turned the blocks into Gail while in Grangeville.

There were several 'Ta Da' moments as members finished sewing/quilting projects.

Karolyne won the $25 gift certificate to the Best Friends Quilt Shop.

Hostess for April are Karolyne and Marietta while April BOM is Kristen.

We adjourned to dinner at 5pm.

Grangeville was a fun retreat and tentative dates were set for 2021. Members attending retreat will have a great show and tell at our next meeting.
